Shot Herself on the Stage.

Leaving her seat in one of the boxes n the Crystal Theater, Denver, Colo.

during yesterday afternoon's perform-ance, Mrs. C. A. Weilder made her way to the stage, and, after flourishing a re-volver for a moment in full view of the audience, discharged the weapon at her own person, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Persons in the audience thought that the shooting was part of an act, and made no outery. Screams of the performers in the wings showed that something unusual had occurred. When the woman was carried away unconscious by stage attendants, she still held the weapon, and a photograph, said to be that of her young son. The woman was removed to a hospital, quiet was re-wred, and the performance was resumed.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with searcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cald and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough
